This morning we go jet boating with Huka Falls Jet on the Waikato River, right up to the base of Huka Falls – lets see you stay dry on this one!!

After lunch optional bungy or quad bikes (own expense) then more fun & games with Paintball – make your mark!

- Finish off the day with a relaxing dip in some natural hot springs

Wednesday

25 Nov 09

After breakfast take on the Rock'n Ropes Big Three Challenge – the formidable High Beam, the daunting Giant Trapeze and the exhilarating Giant Swing.

Then it's off to Rotorua for 3 nights at Treks – a fantastic downtown location.

Lunch will be served on top of a mountain overlooking Lake Rotorua, accessed by gondola!

- Then luge at your own speed (usually fast) down & chairlift up the mountain

- Some free time this afternoon – if you have any energy left try mountain biking or horse riding (own expense)!

Tonight indoor rock-climbing at The Wall.

Thursday
26 Nov 09

This morning our Kaitiaki River guides will collect us at Treks for the best heart-starting river rafting experience of your life! <http://www.raft-it.com/>

- This afternoon you have free time – perhaps try sledging or off-road kartz (optional) or maybe some shopping
- Traditional Hangi Concert & Feast at Tamaki Village tonight

Friday
27 Nov 09

Calling all 'Zorbonauts' - this is your day! We've included the Triple 'Hydro-Zorb' as it's definitely more fun with three. Afterwards there are plenty of other options at the Agrodome nearby. Perhaps Swoop or Freefall Xtreme (own expense)??

Our final afternoon in NZ is spent at Off Road NZ & you will not be disappointed. Can't give away too much here (4WD bush safari, Monster 4X4 etc), but check it out for yourself. www.offroadnz.co.nz

- We party into the night at a special dinner tonight, re-telling stories of our action-packed 5 days in NZ !

Saturday
28 Nov 09

If we depart on time from Rotorua this morning, at around 8.00am, we will have a few hours to look around Auckland city and the harbour.
